DIVERSITY DECLARATION

SaskPower recognizes the value supplier diversity programs bring to our company: stronger relationships with our Saskatchewan supply base, new business opportunities, greater innovation, and a more agile supply chain.

For monitoring and tracking, SaskPower requires diverse businesses to be registered within its electronic procurement database. Registration is open to all Indigenous-owned businesses.

A business includes a sole proprietorship, limited company, co-operative, partnership, or not-for-profit organization. To be considered an Indigenous business, a business must meet the following criteria:

At least 51 percent of the company is owned, managed, and controlled by Indigenous person(s)

“Indigenous Person(s)” means an individual who resides in Saskatchewan who is a status Indian under the Indian Act (Canada), a Métis Person or an Inuit.

If a business is starting a joint venture or consortium, at least 51 percent of the joint venture or consortium must be controlled and owned by a Saskatchewan-based Indigenous business, as defined above.

Does your company have a supplier diversity program?  Yes  No

Does your company have an employee diversity program?  Yes  No
